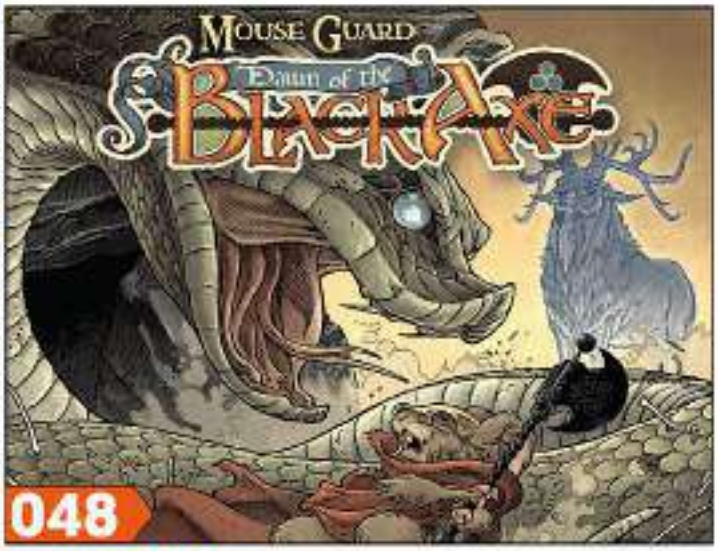
COVER STORY



MOUSE GUARD: DAWN OF THE BLACK AXE #1

BOOM! Studios

The origins of the legendary Black Axe are revealed for the very first time! In celebration of its 20th Anniversary, experience the earliest tale in Mouse Guard history in this all-new series from Mouse Guard creator David Petersen and Eisner-nominated artist Gabriel Rodriguez!

OUT OF ALCATRAZ #1 / FREE FOR ALL #1

ONI Press

ONI Press presents two new releases for March 2025! Born from one of the greatest unsolved mysteries of the 20th century, Out of Alcatraz tells the story of convicts Frank Morris and Clarence Anglin, who escape from the "inescapable" island prison, Alcatraz, and embark on a desperate journey to turn their escape into true freedom while on the run.

Patrick Horvath, creator of Beneath the Trees Where Nobody Sees, returns with Free-For-All, a 56-page, self-contained one-shot that delivers a brutal new vision of capitalism-by-combat: a world where the rich must donate half their wealth to the "common good", or defend their riches in ritual combat!

SPACE GHOST/JONNY QUEST: SPACE QUEST #1

Dynamite Entertainment

The Quest Family is legendary for the distances they'll travel for adventure. Now they take the ultimate voyage into outer space! Team Quest is brought in to investigate a mysterious, potentially alien, spacecraft being held at Area 51. And if there's a spaceship there might just be aliens! But what do you get when Space Ghost and Jonny Quest team up? The greatest entertainment event of the twenty-first century!

INVINCIBLE UNIVERSE: BATTLE BEAST #1

Image Comics

Cursed with an unquenchable thirst for violence, Battle Beast searches the universe for the one warrior mightier than him — and a glorious death, his only reward. But even in a universe of mighty Viltrumites like Invincible and Omni-Man, it seems that no one may be able to stop the galaxy's deadliest warrior... unless he does the unthinkable. Superstars Robert Kirkman and Ryan Ottley present the most demanded Invincible story of all time!

GODZILLA VS. FANTASTIC FOUR #1

Marvel Comics

The start of six sensational, action-packed one-shot issues with Marvel Heroes battling The King of the Monsters from its many different eras! How will Godzilla's lore mix with the Mighty Marvel Universe? Find out as history is twisted when icons like the Fantastic Four, Spider-Man, Hulk, X-Men and Thor face off against one of the greatest monsters of all time! In this issue, King Ghidorah comes to Earth, not as an emissary of alien invaders, but as the HERALD OF GALACTUS! Can Godzilla and Marvel's First Family save the Earth from this cosmically colossal threat?

IN THIS ISSUE

WOMEN IN COMICS MONTH 2025!

This issue of PREVIEWS celebrates the many women who work within the comics industry and community, whether it is behind-the-scenes as publishers, editors, marketing, design or translation, or in the creative spotlight as writers and artists. Throughout this issue you'll find our "Women in Comics" icon pointing out a deserving title featuring female creators. Beginning on page 238 of this issue, you'll find a selection of recommended Women in Comics titles available this month!

WELCOME TO VOLUME XXXV!

2025 arrives with an all-new issue of PREVIEWS for the New Year! Volume 35 features another great selection of the best in comics, graphic novels, toys, statues, games and so much more! It's business as usual, yes, but all-new nonetheless!

This month is filled with some great new releases that I'm looking forward to, including the return of the Mouse Guard from BOOM! (Page 48), the first volume of Titan's new manga series, Toxic Super Beasts (Page 152), Return of the Living Dead #1 from American Mythology (Page 268), Santos Sisters Vol. 1 from Fantagraphics (Page 326), The Art of George Wilson from Hermes Press (Page 340), Mark Spears Monsters #4 from Keenspot (Page 358), Light and Dark: The Art of Lee Elias from Moonage Books (Page 378), and so much more! Heck, I didn't even mention Godzilla vs. Fantastic Four or Nick Fury vs. Fin Fang Foom over in this month's Marvel Previews! (Hey, I just did!)

In addition to all of the great stuff we offer every month, we also run a different "theme" each month, usually comics-related, and this month is no exception. In this issue, we're once again celebrating the WOMEN IN COMICS theme, spotlighting the unequaled contributions that women have brought to the comics field. Women today make up a much greater percentage of the creative talents working in the comics industry, and whether it be editing, writing, drawing, painting, lettering, marketing... women are a major power within the comics industry, and I'll say it again that we're better off because of it! And to help you dive into what's available, we've selected some choice titles starting on page 239 of this issue, and also throughout the issue marked with our "Women in Comics" icon, to show you related titles.

Finally, don't forget that we unveiled FREE COMIC BOOK DAY 2025 Gold and Silver titles last issue, so you can check them out again this month, starting on page 31. In addition to the comics, we're also finally revealing our 2025 Commemorative Artist, the ever-popular artist behind Aw Yeah Comics and Patrick the Wolf Boy, writer/artist Art Baltazar! Art has provided us with a great design featuring all of his characters springing forth to celebrate Free Comic Book Day as only they can! Head over to page 40 to learn more about Art Baltazar, and to check out the t-shirt, poster and vinyl sticker featuring his exclusive design for FCBD25!

That's all for now. I'll see you next month for the FEB25 issue of PREVIEWS, and hopefully an update on my comic book, The GunHand!

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

Miyamoto Usagi is an anthropomorphic rabbit warrior who is an expert swordsman, a follower of the samurai lifestyle, and protector of those in need. He was created by Stan Sakai, who was inspired by real life swordsman and warrior Miyamoto Musashi.

Usagi debuted 40 years ago in Albedo Anthropomorphics #2 (November 1984) as the son of his village's headman. He was trained to be a samurai, and after winning a fencing tournament, he was hired to protect Lord Mifune and his family. When the lord's forces were beaten by another lord's army, Usagi chose to become a ronin and work as a Yojimbo, aka a bodyguard for hire.

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick up these books to learn more about Keith Lansdale's Indie Edge style!

- Red Range#1 (See Page 313 in this issue)
- Mucho Mojo: A Hap and Leonard GN (AUG241627)
- The X-Files Case Files: Hoot Goes There (Out of Print—IDW Publishing)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

My name is Keith Lansdale, and I've been in the creative space all my life. Short stories, comics, novels, anthologies, movie scripts, and I even did some directing. I love storytelling in all its forms, and I'm excited to see my father Joe R. Lansdale's original story, Red Range (See PAGE 313!), ride again!

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

I've worked on a lot of things I've enjoyed, but my most recent addition to the Blood and Bullets series is certainly one of my favorites. The story is called, "Eliajah's Elixir," and it's about a snake oil salesman who spends so much time convincing everyone he's the smartest man in the room, so when something happens in a little western town that can't be explained.

INDIE EDGE

What are you currently working on?

I always have a pretty full docket, but currently focus is to get a movie made called The Projectionist made. I've jokingly called it "the Lansdale Taxi Driver", but it's about a young kid with a love for movies who's in a world of trouble. And, of course, I'm wrapping up Red Range with Jok.

What indie titles are you currently reading?

Happy to call out the recent addition from my dad and sister, The Case of the Bleeding Wall (AUG241624), also from Dead Sky Publishing. One thing a Lansdale story certainly can do is take the weird and stand it up on display in a way that makes you laugh at the darkness!

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

Learn How to Use PREVIEWS to Order From Your Comic Shop!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

THE RETURN OF SOLOMON KANE!

SPINNING OUT OF THE PAGES OF THE SAVAGE SWORD OF CONAN!

In his much anticipated return, The 'Sword of Vengeance' once again battles evil in a brand new mini-series!

Titan Direct Market Coordinator Chief Stride recently chatted to Patrick Zircher, the writer and artist of the upcoming series, Solomon Kane: The Serpent Ring.

PATRICK ZIRCHER SOLOMON KANE: THE SERPENT RING

CS: Hi Patrick, let's get straight into it! We've seen quite a few monster hunter archetypes over the years but what makes Solomon Kane different from the others?

PZ: Solomon Kane is very nearly the prototype of the dark, grim avenger-- reflected later in The Shadow, Batman, Aragorn, Vampire Hunter D, Witcher, Van Helsing (the Hugh Jackman version), and even Neo from the Matrix. But it's Kane's quiet puritan convictions that stand him apart. He's a devout but intelligent man.

CS: How would you categorize Kane? Masterless ronin, wandering preacher, anti-hero? (Or maybe something else entirely?!)

DD: In reading Le Morte d'Arthur, The Song of Roland, and other sagas, I found that the knights of old were often grim, violent men. They had a code but did not hesitate to act on it with force. Kane is much like these men, though born centuries later-- so he bears a similarity to a ronin, a samurai without a lord.

CS: Kane carries a rapier, a dueling weapon, rather than a traditional sword. However, he doesn't seem the swashbuckling type. Is that fair to say?

DD: Ah. But Kane is the swashbuckling type. He's just the serious one. Athos of the Musketeers, with the dark past!

CS: Historical adventure mixed with gothic horror and supernatural mysteries seem par for the course for Kane. Is there any particular trope or element that really excites you among those?

DD: All of them do. The rich mix of his place in time, with fantasy, creates a highly detailed and convincing setting. With Kane, encounters with Ivan the Terrible, Queen Elizabeth, Michaelangelo, Shakespeare or Akbar are all possible. In this history Ivan the Terrible could command a legion of undead. Shakespeare could be lured by a succubus.

CS: In your first two Kane tales, featured in issues #1-4 of The Savage Sword of Conan, we saw our puritanical protagonist dishing out justice in Wales and Hungary and then in Battle of the Black Stone he is adventuring in Africa. Is travelling to exotic places part of his schtick?

DD: Absolutely. The first tale is set in Wales to reflect how Howard began Kane's adventures in Britain. The second in Hungary, is again a reflection of Howard moving his adventures to the continent. Africa is dominant after this because that's where Howard set many of his adventures. But, Kane journeyed to North and South America as well.

CS: Solomon Kane: The Serpent Ring has all the trappings of a team-up/heist/mystery/adventure book. How do you go about planning a series that has multiple elements?

DD: Several things are important in this; bringing the supporting characters to life, with friendships, rivalries, love, and betrayals. Then there are motives. Each character wants something out of this adventure. They have a reason and a drive to move forward, to cross seas and continents. And always, an escalation of the danger, one problem compounding another.

CS: Finally, vampires seem to be popular right now (I personally want to see you do a story involving Kane vs Dracula) but would Solomon rather fight 10 chicken sized vampires or 1 vampire sized chicken?

DD: Oh, one vampire sized chicken. Flintlocks are single shot, he'd have to reload a lot to fight ten chicken-sized vampires.

Peter Pan Boldly Re-Imagined from the Creator of Alice Never After!

Years after Peter Pan's adventures with Wendy Darling, the boy who wouldn't grow up is now the last one in Neverland, still clinging to his adventurous youth.

Meanwhile in London, Wendy also yearns for childhood and its freedom from responsibility as she rails against the transition to adulthood and her family's expectations.

As their desires create a mirror of fantasy and reality, a disastrous encounter with the aging Captain Hook becomes the catalyst for Peter's realization that Neverland is growing up without him.

But will the two of them find each other once again to carry on their age-old adventures... or is this truly the final threshold of their adolescence in this modern take on a classic tale from legendary writer Dan Panosian (Alice Never After, Canary), and rising star artist Alessio Avallone!

THUNDERCATS: LOST EXPANDS THE SMASH-HIT FRANCHISE WITH ALL-NEW CHARACTERS AND STORIES!

AUTHOR ED BRISSON BREAKS IT DOWN

Ed, when you were working on the Apex special for our ThunderCats line, we already grilled you a bit about your history and attachment to the franchise overall. But for those checking out this new series, can you speak a bit about your love for this world and characters?

ThunderCats was part of that power hour of incredible back-to-back cartoons with Silver-Hawks that came on at four o'clock. I was a latchkey kid who'd come home directly from school and mainline TV until my mom would come home and peel me away. We only had a few of the toys, but I followed along with the comic series that Marvel was putting out at the time and always caught the animated series during reruns.

On that note, you're reuniting for an extended stretch with artist Rapha Lobosco, who drew Apex. What's it like working with him again and carrying forward the momentum you built together in the ThunderCats world?

It's been great! I love working with Rapha. Behind the scenes, we pretty much rolled right from Apex into ThunderCats: Lost as these were projects that were offered to us at the same time. We didn't want to lose the momentum we had going from Apex.

Rapha is the type of artist that I love working with. He's incredibly collaborative and we're in near constant contact to discuss story and characters, shooting ideas back and forth. The thing I love most about writing comics is collaborating with artists, and when you're teamed with an artist who is as excited about the project as you are and wants to ensure that you both pour yourselves into it, it's a special sort of magic.

The initial ThunderCats series from Declan Shalvey and Drew Moss is still marching along, so we must ask, how do you kind of see the differentiation between it and your own Lost? We're told that this title will feature a wholly separate core cast as well as characters that haven't previously been in the spotlight much, and that in a way it's a bit like a "Suicide Squad" of the ThunderCats world, whereas the main series would be closer to their "Justice League."

The Suicide Squad vs. Justice League comparison is a good one, I think. The two teams have two very different approaches to their missions — even if both have the same goal of trying to ensure the survival of Thunderians.

There are parts that are tough to talk about without wading into spoiler territory, so I'm erring on the side of caution here. What I can say is that the ThunderCats: Lost team has set out with the intention of founding a new home for the Thunderians, but there are some very key differences in their mission that even the ThunderCats: Lost team is not aware of. They carry a pretty large burden in the form of secret cargo that would ensure the survival of their kind — but that cargo has slipped through their fingers.

The world that the ThunderCats: Lost team have ventured into is, in a lot of ways, very different from where our mainline ThunderCats are, and the trials and tribulations that they face as a result are very different — though just as deadly. The lifestyle, technology, and culture of the world they've touched down on is more tech and less magic based, and is heavily militarized. They do not like cats, and are hellbent on ridding the planet of these new interlopers. The villains they face will be familiar to ThunderCats fans, but, again, you'll have to read to find out just who!

Eagle-eyed returning fans of ThunderCats will recognize some of the characters in Lost, such as Bengali, Pumyra, and Lynx-O. But there are also going to be some new characters in the series, including Neko and Ligon. Can you talk a bit more about the cast and bringing your own additions to the franchise?

Bengali, Pumyra, and Lynx-O were all second-season additions on the original animated series. Their origin in our series will vary from their origin in the cartoon, while still maintaining some similarity. Who they are hasn't changed, but the thrust of their mission has. In the original series, they were Thunderans who were prevented from leaving on the same ship as the ThunderCats and seemingly doomed before being rescued by Berbils. In ThunderCats: Lost they have a larger, more important role that's directly tied to the survival of all Thunderans — a role that connects both the Apex one-shot and the ongoing ThunderCats book, but with a bit of a twist.

Joining them on this mission are two new characters: Neko and Ligon. Rapha and I spent quite a bit of time developing these two characters, and I've fallen in love with both of them. Neko is a snow leopard who may be smaller than the rest of the crew but is probably the fiercest ThunderCat to date. She's a skilled warrior and killing machine who tries to solve every problem with violence. Ligon, on the other hand, is a Liger (half lion, half tiger). Ligers are the offspring of a male lion and a female tiger, and since growth inhibitors are passed on by lion mothers and tiger fathers, Ligers don't have them. As a result, they're prone to gigantism. Ligon is no exception. He's the giant of the team. A brutal menace on the battlefield who has no need for weapons beyond his fists. When not in battle, he's kind and caring. He's the heart of the team, always compassionate (sometimes to a fault), whereas Neko tends to be more impulsive and reckless.

Not too long ago, you were popping in as a guest creator for the franchise with Apex. Now, just a few short months later, you're going to be juggling two ongoing titles with ThunderCats: Lost and the sister series SilverHawks. Can you talk about the overall passion you have for these books, the collaboration with folks like Declan and editor Nate Cosby, and bringing all these fun stories to the fans?

As I mentioned above, these series were part of my childhood. I loved the whole Rankin-Bass oeuvre, and being able to contribute to the lore on just one book is incredibly exciting — being on two feels like I won the Lotto. It's a real honor to be playing such a big role in the expansion of this world, and it's something I've been taking very seriously.

Nate, Declan, and I have an ongoing chat where we've been hashing out plans for the books going forward. There's a lot of care and effort going into ensuring that these books all feel both unique and as though they're part of the same larger universe. It's a tough balance to achieve, but it has been a deeply rewarding experience. Nate and Declan were the ones who came up with an idea to expand the ThunderCats universe with this new book, and they came to me with some ideas already in place but were open to what I wanted to bring to the table to help make it its own thing. I know I said it once already, but the thing I love most about making comics is the collaboration with other creators, and with this expanded universe, between Rapha, George (on SilverHawks), Nate, and Declan, I'm being spoiled with it.

The Quest Family is legendary for how far they'll go in the spirit of exploration and discovery — but their latest mission is literally out of this world!

Jonny and the gang are brought in to investigate a mysterious, potentially extraterrestrial spacecraft that has been found by the government and brought to Area 51. Of course, where there's spaceships, there's bound to be aliens, right? But what Team Quest finds in this particular UFO is a far cry from the usual little gray men — and it's under the jurisdiction of a (literally) higher power: Space Ghost!

So what happens when the Defender of the Spaceways and the world's most famous boy adventurer cross paths? The greatest entertainment event of the 21st century, that's what — all effortlessly executed by Jonny Quest's acclaimed creative team of author JOE CASEY and illustrator SEBASTIÁN PÍRIZ, with high-gain covers expertly engineered by MARK SPEARS, JOSHUA MIDDLETON, DEREK CHEW, BEN OLIVER, and CHAD HARDIN!

TWO HANNA-BARBERA ICONS TEAM UP IN AN ALL-NEW SERIES!

JOE CASEY TALKS HIS CONTINUING JONNY QUEST TALES AND BRINGING IN SPACE GHOST

Joe, the Jonny Quest series you just wrapped with Sebastián Piriz is truly special, and we're all grateful that it connected so well with fans. This is quite an interesting direction to take the creative team and the characters now, bringing in another Hanna-Barbera classic for an unexpected crossover. Though it's fresh, how would you evaluate your initial stories with Jonny preceding this?

I'm really happy with the first Jonny Quest story. It was like we were doing "Jonny Quest: The Movie" on paper. It felt epic in scope, but still emotionally resonant. Creatively, everybody seemed to bring their A game, which is really all you can ask for. Having said that, in a lot of ways, the first storyline was just priming the pump for the one we're doing now.

Let's move on to the elephant in the room — or at least a cosmos-faring superhero! What are your feelings about the character of Space Ghost as a whole, as well as his original Hanna-Barbera animated tales, the fan-favorite Coast to Coast interpretation, etc.? What inspired you to pick him to bring into the Jonny Quest mythos?

It just seemed to make sense. Jonny Quest and Space Ghost have roughly the same pedigree. Alex Toth was intimately involved with both shows. In a lot of ways, Space Ghost is the more iconic of the two characters because of the various interpretations through the years, but Jonny Quest was the better show in terms of overall quality. So it was easy to look at the two concepts and see how they could fit together, how they could bounce off each other, and what kind of story would serve to honor both of them.

Your Jonny Quest series does a great job of delving into and juggling the cast around the titular kid adventurer, including Dr. Benton, Race Bannon, Hadji, and of course Bandit. Likewise, should fans expect to see some of the wider Space Ghost cast in this story, or is the focus more on him coming into Jonny's sphere solo?

No, everyone will be there. It's a crossover of concepts as much as it is of the characters. And the basic hook of the story is something that I can't believe has never been done before. Once you see it, it's so gloriously obvious that it just feels right.

With the cast established, how do you see some of the dynamics between Jonny and Space Ghost, two iconic characters that, to our knowledge, have rarely crossed paths?

© & ™ Hanna-Barbera. (s25)

Well, like I said, there are genuine similarities between the two concepts, you just have to look for them. So how Jonny and Space Ghost interact almost comes naturally — the dynamics for both of them are already baked in, which makes it really easy. I don't want to give too much away, but it's all about putting these familiar characters into new, unfamiliar contexts.

On the preceding series, Sebastián was such a perfect match for your writing sensibilities as well as for the world of Jonny Quest. He brings his own unique, energetic style, while also capturing the spirit of the Hanna-Barbera aesthetic and its roots in legendary illustrators and animators like Alex Toth. How are you feeling about keeping him on as your collaborator for this new series, with Space Ghost added to the mix?

At this point, I can't imagine telling this story without Sebastián drawing it. From the very first pages we did together, he was absolutely the right choice. His work brought a depth to those characters that was beyond my expectations. As far as his depiction of the Space Ghost mythology goes, I can only assume he's going to crush it!

While serving out a life-debt, Red Sonja uncovers a sinister prophecy of cosmic foulness from beyond the stars. To stop the imminent destruction of the world, the She-Devil with a Sword must trek from the deserts south of Hyrkania all the way to the northern shores of the Vilayet Sea to face down the insidious invaders from Mars — not to mention the serpent-men, metamorlocks, and ancient, angry monster-gods that she meets along the way!

SHE-DEVIL VS. MARTIANS — ALL-OUT WAR!

WRITER JAY STEPHENS TALKS ABOUT THE UPCOMING SHOWDOWN

Jay, welcome to the Dynamite family! You're known for a wide range of really fun projects, such as the hit series Dwellings, which combines a kind of Harvey Comics kid characters visual style with horror elements, so a fun crossover like this seems natural for you. Are we correct in thinking that Mars Attacks! is right up your alley?

I'm having such a blast! It feels like you could see me drooling over my Norman Saunders (the original Mars Attacks! card creator) art book, which I do more often than would be considered sane. Yeah, campy, horrifying, mid-century, and notorious does seem to be my vibe — not coincidental that I recently drew a variant cover homage to Wally Wood's Weird Science #16 that featured the alien invaders that inspired Saunders's 1962 Martian designs (Cruel Universe #1). I'm always striving for that reimagined nostalgia... a sort of irreverent reverence for the Things that haunted me as a kid.

Since invading the wondrous world of comic books, the fearsome big brainies have crossed paths with many four-color heroes, from fellow Martians who know their home planet better as Barsoom to the immortal rock band KISS — including Red Sonja once before. How do you think the She-Devil with a Sword measures up against these alien baddies?

What at first might seem like an unfair fight or a bizarre clash of genres begins immediately to feel like a natural fit after re-reading even a little of Robert E. Howard's Weird Tales sword-and-sorcery pulp. The Hyborian Age is a fantasy world rife with dripping, skull-faced horrors from beyond space and time — Red Sonja is not at all unaccustomed to fighting these cosmic ghouls to a standstill!

Artist Fran Strukan returns to capture this clash of worlds alongside your writing. What do you feel he brings to the table artistically, and how has the collaboration been going so far?

Fran got the vibe right away with the original series, and he continues to pull off the balancing act here. As bizarre and campy and f'ed up as this gets, we must continue to play it straight. This is, at its core, an epic adventure; a thematic tribute to the nutty, unbridled action fantasy films of the '80s — Krull, Time Bandits, Conan the Barbarian, The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai — where ANYTHING could happen! Lots of tight, clean drawing with plenty of action set pieces and loads of MONSTERS.

On that note, this follows a hit Mars Attacks Red Sonja story from 2020. Now the title has been rearranged a bit for Red Sonja Attacks Mars. Obviously fans can totally jump into this series cold and enjoy the mayhem, but can you talk about some of the possible connections between the stories, and how this new one will be upping the ante?

Yes, it's a standalone story that also gives a subtle nod to events of the original, so returning readers will feel rewarded. But the title reversal is in respect of the power and fury of Red Sonja. Attack her once, and you might just surprise her. But if she ever sees the like of you again...

After flipping the switch on Megavolt in last month's debut issue, Darkwing Duck transforms here into the Terror That Claps in the Night when his adopted daughter Gosalyn is cast in a school play!

True, it's only a small role (Gos and her friend Honker are portraying pieces of shrubbery), but it proves to be a pivotal part when the packed house comes under attack on opening night by the sappiest member of the Fearsome Five — BUSHROOT!

The green-thumbed creative team of writer DANIEL KIBBLESMITH (The Late Show with Stephen Colbert) and artists TED BRANDT & RO STEIN (The Mighty Captain Marvel) continue to unearth the Defender of St. Canard's early adventures in the second issue of their evergreen new series — crowned with covers from original animated show creator TAD STONES as well as BRANDT & STEIN, MARK BAGLEY, NICOLETTA BALDARI, and CIRO CANGIALOSI!

It's time for Townsville's Battle of the Bands, and everyone who's anyone is signing up to be a star for a day!

But what's a Powerpuff Girl to do when each member of your power pop trio wants to play a totally different style of music? Clearly, the girls need to find some more compatible bandmates. And if the enemy of your enemy is your friend, then your friend's enemy should obviously join your band — that's just logic!

Composed by AMANDA DEIBERT and arranged by SILVIA DE VENTURA, The Powerpuff Girls #9 is a toe-tapping (and knuckle-cracking) tour de force sweetened by heroically harmonized covers from PAULINA GANUCHEAU, ALESSANDRO RANALDI, CAT STAGGS, and PASQUALE QUALANO!

As the first generation of human-mimicking Infiltrators deployed by Skynet against the Resistance, the T-600s displayed all of the problems that come from rushing a prototype into production. Covered in unconvincing rubber skin and lacking any organic components, they were easily detected and destroyed.

But if there's one thing that Skynet is good at, it's learning from its mistakes. And as the historic tales in this pivotal issue demonstrate, every T-600's mission — no matter the outcome — brought the lethal T-800s one step closer to activation!

INVINCIBLE UNIVERSE: BATTLE BEAST #1

GEM OF THE MONTH

(W) Robert Kirkman (A/CA) Ryan Ottley, Annalisa Leoni

Series Premiere. The best new (not quite a) super-hero series in the universe! Cursed with an unquenchable thirst for violence, Battle Beast searches the universe for the one warrior mightier than him—and a glorious death, his only reward. But even in a universe of mighty Viltrumites like Invincible and Omni-Man, it seems that no one may be able to stop the galaxy's deadliest warrior... unless he does the unthinkable. Superstars Robert Kirkman and Ryan Ottley present the most demanded Invincible story of all time, revealing the secret story of Battle Beast that's perfect for any long-time fan (no spoilers!) and new readers alike. COVER C Blind Bag: This is a first-of-its-kind blind bag program. The blind bags will include a chance to get any of the solicited covers from A through I. However, there are rare SURPRISE issues that may or may not be related to Battle Beast or the Invincible Universe that can be found in these blind bags. BITTER ROOT: THE NEXT MOVEMENT #1

(W) David Walker, Chuck Brown (A/CA) Sanford Greene

A Lie built a House of Oppression. The Bitter Truth will burn it down. It is 1964, the height of the Civil Rights Movement. A group of activists have gone missing, and a new generation of the Sangerye family must face a menace far worse than anything their ancestors ever encountered. The monstrous jinoo—creatures born out of hate and racism—have evolved into a threat that few people are willing to acknowledge, and even fewer know how to fight. A bold new chapter in the epic saga of the multiple Eisner Award-winning series begins here. (STL359508)

ASSORTED CRISIS EVENTS #1

(W) Deniz Camp (A/CA) Eric Zawadzki

Series Premiere. Time is having a crisis. Mingling in the red-light district, you can find actual cavemen, medieval knights, and cyborg soldiers on leave from World War IV. Victorian debutantes amble their way into cell phone stores, confused and bewildered (what is a data plan?). On their way to work, bleary-eyed commuters get trapped in time-loops, assaulted by alternate-reality versions of themselves, and try to avoid post-apocalyptic wastelands. And LOOK: the 3:15 bus just took a wrong turn... into the neolithic era. Rising stars Deniz Camp and Eric Zawadzki and Eisner-winners Jordie Bellaire and Hassan Otsmane-Elhaou are proud to present Assorted Crisis Events, an ongoing, zig-zagging anthology series about the compromised clicks of our clocks—full of one-shot stories both beautiful and ugly, tragic and redemptive, surreal and somehow all too familiar. GROMMETS TP

(W) Rick Remender, Brian Posehn (A/CA) Brett Parson

Two outcast best friends navigate the Sacramento suburbs of 1984, where they find a home in skateboard culture and punk rock. Grommets is both an authentic look at '80s skate culture—a snapshot of the generation that turned skating into a worldwide phenomenon—as well as a heartfelt coming-of-age story following two friends from troubled homes, navigating their damage in an era when no one cared. The series' title sprints from skater slang. A "grommet" is a commonly used term for a young up-and-coming skater or surfer. Since the '60s, it's been used to describe the next generation of kids who, with youthful exuberance, love the sport but want to put their spin on it. Was Medusa a monster? Was Perseus a hero? André Breinbauer explores the famous mythological tale in his debut graphic novel, telling the story from two differing perspectives. Abused by a god and cursed by a goddess for her indiscretion, Medusa is subject to cruel circumstances. Perseus, still a child, is a plaything of the powerful. Featuring a unique storytelling device, Medusa + Perseus is read from both sides, offering parallel points-of-view before the characters' legendary clash when they meet in the middle.

For Juan Cortez, guerrilla warfare is a profession. Death, a hobby. There are many such people, plagued by addictions. Some can only find sensation in the extreme, others can't do without euphoric substances. Juan Cortez is a guerrilla warfare addict. For years, he's traveled among conflict zones, offering his experience and training to the highest bidder. This time, fate has led him to Santa Costa, a South American country that curiously reminds him of Yara, his native land. Because here, as on the island of Anton Castillo, the recent discovery of a rare resource, a mineral called "Tantalum," has upset the economy of a small nation previously ignored.

YOU WON'T FEEL A THING #2

STORY: SCOTT SNYDER
ART: JOCK

The hit crime series continues! Modern comic writing legend Scott Snyder (Batman, WHITE BOAT) reunites with iconic horror artist Jock (Wytches, GONE) to tell the story of an ailing detective's past come back to haunt him...

After the harrowing murder of someone close to him, detective John Reader is more convinced than ever that there's a serial killer loose in his retirement community. But as his dementia worsens, it's getting harder for him to separate fact from fiction...and that disparity might just make him the next victim!

YOU WON'T FEEL A THING is a sobering murder mystery exploring the anguish of a man whose own body and mind has turned against him, and the desire to find meaning in one's own life before it unravels.

NEW GRAPHIC NOVEL from writer Ryan Stegman (Venom, Superior Spider-Man, X-Men, Vanish) and artist Jason Howard (Batman, Trees, Big Girls, The Astounding Wolf-Man) comes THE MISSIONARY, a horror comic for the ages.

Bryce Hunter is a devoutly religious man whose faith is shattered when he catches his wife being...intimate with an Elder from his church. This harrowing event sends Bryce spiraling into the hands of a demonic entity named Uvydus. Instead of rejecting possession, Bryce ACCEPTS Uvydus. Bryce wants to learn to be "bad" and Uvydus wants to be "less than completely evil."

But before Bryce can use this new partnership to finally live a little, the world's greatest Exorcist sees Bryce as his greatest challenge. But that's not even the worst of it as a murderous group of demons breaks free from Hell and threatens to re-shape earth into a kingdom over which they rule!

The combination of Bryce and Uvydus allows Bryce to manifest demonic powers to fight both the EVIL and GOOD forces who want him destroyed. The fate of eternity hangs in the balance as Bryce and Uvydus must fight to not just survive but reconcile their opposite natures and become THE MISSIONARY.

An action-packed story featuring demons, gun battles, and a blasphemous friendship that will drag you straight to hell.

Meanwhile, Arthur's daughter, Princess Ysabelle, is wondering how to flee the marriage her father has arranged with the vile Baron Cumber. Desperate for something different and better, Ysabelle and her father's sword join hands and set off on a quest to change their fates. But although Ysabelle is brave, she's never ventured outside before—and the real world is much harsher than life within the palace walls. STORY SPINNERS GN

(W/A) Cassandra Federman

Big sister Kennedy and little sister Devon couldn't be more different. Their shared room has a clear divide down the middle. On one, musical theater-loving Kennedy keeps things tidy. On the other, heavy metal fan Devon looks like she lives in an exploded toy store. When baby sister Eve moves in, her contribution is crying. Constant. Ear-piercing. Crying. The added stress pushes the older girls to their breaking point, and they get into their biggest fight yet. In response, Mom and Dad crack down, seizing all beloved electronics until Kennedy and Devon can find a way to get along. Now stuck together with no distractions except Eve's screaming, the two land on a desperate solution: tell Eve a bedtime story so epic that it puts her to sleep and gets her big sisters out of trouble. Pizza aside, the only thing the girls have in common is their love of stories. But Kennedy's fairy tales make Devon want to barf, and Devon's nonsensical adventure stories make Kennedy want to tear her hair out. So they try to mash-up a story of true love, adventure, princesses, pirates, pirate-princesses, dragons, spiders, and... garbage trucks? Will their hilarious fairy tale remix solidify their sisterly bond or break it forever after? (STL355850) (C: 0-1-0)

BEYOND ALL LIMITS!

The future of Valiant Comics begins this March with the launch of the all-new Valiant Beyond universe from Alien Books!

Here's everything you need to know about Valiant Beyond!

WHAT IS VALIANT BEYOND?

Valiant Beyond is our opportunity to launch a new, reader-friendly line of comics while celebrating the rich history of the characters. New readers will find everything accessible while long-time fans will love spotting all the references and nods to past stories.

WHAT MAKES THIS THE RIGHT TIME FOR VALIANT BEYOND?

Every iteration of Valiant has had its own distinct voice and look: the original launch in the '90s, the Acclaim relaunch, and the 2012 rebirth. Alien Books has honored past story lines as we built to the RESURGENCE event and now our goal is to try something different while still retaining the core of what makes these characters and this universe so exciting.

WHAT CAN LONG-TIME READERS LOOK FORWARD TO IN VALIANT BEYOND?

You can expect to see contributions from beloved Valiant creators of the past as well as fresh perspectives from new talent. You'll see bold new interpretations of your favorite characters that are innovative while still remaining familiar.

HOW MANY ISSUES OF EACH VALIANT BEYOND SERIES WILL THERE BE?

We're aiming for at least 12 issues per series, split into 3/4-issue arcs that combine to tell a larger story.

ARE THERE MORE VALIANT BEYOND TITLES IN THE WORKS?

Yes! In addition to Bloodshot and Tales of the Shadowman, we'll be launching X-O Manowar and All-New Harbinger in April. We're optimistic that fan and retailer support will help us expand this line further with more mini-series and specials.

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD FOR THE REST OF VALIANT COMICS?

The beauty of Valiant Beyond is that it doesn't replace the current continuity! After Resurgence, our heroes will find themselves trapped in the Undeadside, which will be explored in the Valiant Zombies: Resurrection miniseries that begins on Free Comic Book Day. Both universes—the main continuity and Beyond—will continue side by side. If you're already a Valiant reader, there's plenty more in store for you. And if you're new, this is the perfect jumping-on point.

Bheema was the strongman of the Pandavas in the Mahabharata. So was Hanuman the ape in the Ramayana. For both, the poets held that their powers were the gift of the wind-god, their parent. The two face each other in this story from the Mahabharata. During the Pandavas' exile in the forest, their wife Draupadi expresses her wish to have a particular flower. Bheema sets out for the mountain on which the flower blossoms. On the way he demonstrates his strength against an elephant. He is however unable to lift the tail of Hanuman who is lying on the way. An interesting encounter follows and in the end Bheema achieves his purpose. Hanuman lived in the Tretayug serving Sri rama while Bheema, a contemporary of Krishna, lived in the Dwaparyug. BAD MOTHER

Vol. 1 TPB (Mature Readers)

Written by Christa Faust | Illustrated by Mike Deodato, Jr. | Colored by Lee Loughridge

A nerve-racking thriller from crime writer Christa Faust (Hit Me, Redemption) and blockbuster artist Mike Deodato Jr. (The Resistance, The Flash, Amazing Spider-Man). When her teenaged daughter goes missing under mysterious circumstances, suburban soccer mom April Walters embarks on a harrowing mission to find her; a journey that takes her through the underbelly of her suburban community and sets her on a collision course with a massive crime syndicate and its lethal matriarch. Tested to her limits and beyond, April discovers that hell hath no fury like a mother scorned.

"If Faust and her collaborators were looking to establish a Breaking Bad-type vibe, they have certainly succeeded in doing that." — Screen Rant

REDEMPTION

Vol. 1 TPB (Mature Readers)

Written by Christa Faust | Illustrated by Mike Deodato, Jr. | Colored by Lee Loughridge

The dusty desert town of Redemption survived the apocalypse but is hanging on by a thread. A despot rules the town with an iron fist and controls its most precious resource: water. When that strongman marks her mother for death, young Rose Obregon ventures into the perilous wasteland to seek the help of the legendary gunslinger Cat Tanner, only to discover that the so-called "Butcher" is long retired, living in solitude, far from what's left of the world, and preferring to keep it that way. When Rose arrives on Tanner's doorstep, with gunmen hot on her trail, the Butcher has a choice to make: sit on the sidelines or pick up her guns and do what she does best?
(JUL211416) $9.99

"Redemption isn't just a badass post-apocalyptic western with brilliant art, it's also a commentary on the history of misuse of the genre and the potential it holds for women-led stories." — Comic Watch

PAVIL'S MASK HC
(W/A) Jeremy Perrodeau
When a mysterious aircraft crashes on the windswept archipelago of Lapyoza, its lone survivor—Pavil—utters only two words: "Crystal Empire!" Is Pavil merely the scribe he claims to be, or something more sinister? Despite their suspicions, the people of Lapyoza cannot deny him hospitality. He will stay as their guest, but he must contribute to the community before he can return to the Empire. Thus, Pavil finds himself immersed in the life of Lapyoza, a remote village battered by relentless winds on an isolated archipelago. Far from the bustling imperial cities, Pavil observes the simple yet mysterious rituals of the villagers—changing the face of a massive totem, collecting peculiar artifacts, melting them down, and renewing them in a never-ending cycle. Pavil edges closer to the truth behind the sacred masks and the unseen entity, Hodá, revered by all but known to none. (STL353165)

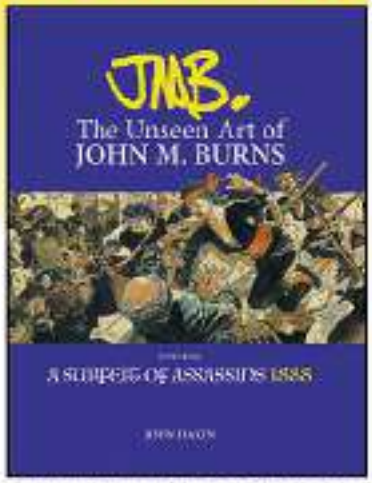
SPOTLIGHT ON

JMB THE UNSEEN ART OF JOHN M BURNS HC



John M. Burns was one of Britain's, if not the world's, finest continuity artists. In a career spanning over 60 years, he produced vast amounts of work for numerous British weeklies including TV Express, The Hotspur, Boys' World, Diana, Wham!, Lady Penelope, TV Action, Look-in, 2000AD and Judge Dredd Megazine as well as working for publishers in Europe and the USA. Although always in demand, John found time between his numerous long term work commitments to help John Dakin in his quest to revive the British newspaper comic strip. Unfortunately this revitalisation never happened, but over a 15 year period, both Johns created characters, strips and full color pages that, until now have barely been seen by the public. Reproducing 40 color pages, including all 25 pages of their unfinished epic, A Surfeit of Assassins, numerous strips, sketches and roughs, this book truly reveals the unseen art of John M. Burns. Limited edition of 500 copies. (STL356884) (C: 0-1-2)

MUYBRIDGE HC

(W/A/CA) Guy Delisle
Sacramento, California, 1870. Pioneer photographer Eadweard Muybridge becomes entangled in railroad robber baron Leland Stanford's delusions of grandeur. Tasked with proving Stanford's belief that a horse's hooves do not touch the ground while galloping at full speed, Muybridge gets to work with his camera. In doing so, he inadvertently creates one of the single most important technological advancements of our age—the invention of time-lapse photography and the mechanical ability to capture motion. Critically-acclaimed cartoonist Guy Delisle (Pyongyang) returns with another engrossing foray into nonfiction: a biography about Eadweard Muybridge, the man who made pictures move. Translated from the French by Helge Dascher & Rob Aspinall, Muybridge turns a spotlight on what lives in the shadow of an individual's ambition for greatness, and proves that Eadweard Muybridge deserves to be far more than just another historical footnote. WE ALL GOT SOMETHING GN

(W/A/CA) Lawrence Lindell
After a rocky attempt at living in London with his partner, Lawrence finds himself single, broke, and back at home in Compton with his mom and great-aunt, moping from bed to kitchen table and back to bed again, with long layovers on the front porch to sit and watch the world pass him by. Everything had been so good—a degree, an animation internship, paid music gigs, the perfect girl. How the heck did Lawrence get knocked so far down, with such little semblance of his former life remaining to hold him together? Lawrence Lindell's heartbreaking—and heartwarming—We All Got Something recounts a tragic and random act of violence, the PTSD that follows, lost love, and coming to terms with the underlying mental health crises sabotaging it all. A testament to the healing power of art and the vital role community plays in the process, Lindell's graphic memoir is deeply personal and specific, but also relatable—because we all got something. Welcome to the Girl Juice House, home of only the hottest gang in town. Benji Nate's stylish and rambunctious sense of humor lovingly takes digs at the young and tragically hip—reserved and introspective Nana, comically hypersexual Bunny, fledgling U-tuber Tula, and Designated Mom™ Sadie—as they navigate life, love, and the pursuit of a good time. HOSTAGE HC

(W/A/CA) Guy Delisle

In the middle of the night in 1997, Doctors Without Borders administrator Christophe André was kidnapped by armed men and taken away to an unknown destination in the Caucasus region. For three months, André was kept handcuffed in solitary confinement, with little to survive on and almost no contact with the outside world. Close to twenty years later, award-winning cartoonist Guy Delisle recounts André's harrowing experience in Hostage, a book that attests to the power of one man's determination in the face of a hopeless situation. O/A PROCESSING: THE 100 COMICS THAT GOT ME THROUGH IT GN

WOMEN in COMICS

(W/A/CA) Tara Booth

Part advice column and exhibit, exploration of psychic pollution and tranquility, Processing is—quite simply—intrepid: in its honesty; its unapologetic grossness; its unrivaled and frank portrayal of life with a body that bleeds. In the grand tradition of underground women cartoonists like Julie Doucet and Aline Kominsky-Crumb, Booth draws a horned up woman laying rose petals on the bed, to distract from the bedbugs before her hookup arrives. She bears witness to the reality of wearing a t-shirt with no bra—when you stretch, your boobs, sometimes, pop right out. This is all just life but we don't often see it on the page. With color that vibrates and fluids that impose, Processing lays Booth bare—literally and figuratively. (STL325574)

PYONGYANG: A JOURNEY IN NORTH KOREA GN

(W/A/CA) Guy Delisle

Complete with a new cover and an introduction by Gore Verbinski, this expanded edition of the international bestselling graphic novel Pyongyang is more important now than ever. Guy Delisle recounts his experience as one of the few Westerners to be allowed access to the fortress-like country when he was working in animation for a French company. While living in the nation's capital for two months on a work visa, Delisle observed everything he was allowed to see of life and culture in the "hermit kingdom." (STL082878)

Over the course of a much-anticipated trip to New York, an unexpected fling blossoms between casual acquaintances and throws a long-term friendship off-balance. Slick attention to the details of a bustling, intimidating metropolis are softened with a palette of muted pastels, as though seen through the eyes of first-time travelers. The awe, wonder, and occasional stumble along the way come to life with stunning accuracy. (STL277792)

(W/A/CA) Yamada Murasaki

Drawn soon after the critically-acclaimed Talk to My Back, the two stories in Second Hand Love mark the triumphant return of Yamada Murasaki, one of literary manga's most respected feminist voices. Through a cracked door, heartsick Emi hears a playful growl. Cautiously, she lets her lover in-a wolf of a man wielding a bouquet of roses. His shoulders must have been four inches wider than mine. As I stood behind him, I fantasized about the broadness of his chest and the thickness of his neck... and about becoming his mistress once again. (STL313719) (C: 0-1-2)

Jillian Tamaki is best known for co-creating the award-winning young adult graphic novels Skim and This One Summer, moody and atmospheric bestsellers. SuperMutant Magic Academy, which Jillian has been serializing online for the past four years, deftly plays superhero and high school Hollywood tropes against what adolescence is really like: the SuperMutant Magic Academy is a prep-school for mutants and witches but their paranormal abilities take a back seat to everyday teen concerns. Only Grandma remembers the distant past, a civilization of segway-riding mall cops, Blockbusters movie rental shops, and "That's What She Said" jokes. Woman World is an uproarious and insightful graphic novel from a talented and funny new voice. An anthology series with the best and strangest sci-fi and horror tales we could create. The stories that you are going to find in this anthology are both thought provoking and obscure... just how we like them!

Axa, a spirited woman in the year 2080, can no longer endure the oppressive order of the Domed City, a utopia built to protect the remnants of humanity after the Great Contamination. Driven by a thirst for freedom, she escapes to the wild, uncharted territories beyond. As a nomadic adventurer in the devastated outside world, Axa encounters a diverse array of survivors and challenges, forging a new, exhilarating life far from the confines of civilization. With the steel of his sword and the strength of his earthly muscles, John Carter will stop at nothing to free the woman who has captured his heart, even as she spurns his love. Reunited with Tars Tarkas, his loyal green Martian friend, John Carter runs awry into the hands of the Holy Therns, the ancient cult that in secret rules all Barsoom. HAPPY ENDINGS

(W/A) LUCIE BRYON

THREE STORIES, ONE CREATOR! Once upon a time, there was a cemetery gardener who fell in love with a professional grave mourner, with a look of a ghost. Once upon a time, there was an Art student who asked a young man to pose for her on New Year's Eve. Once upon a time, there were agents from the future sent to our present, to a small seaside town, to fix a temporal cat related paradox. They found themselves enjoying Italian ice cream while watching sunsets and no longer wanted to return to their dimension. And they ended up... who knows where. All beautiful things must come to an end, but if we must choose, let it be beautiful. In HAPPY ENDINGS, the new hit graphic novel from LUCIE BRYON (THIEVES), all stories are intwined. And they all end up with a smile.

SEARCH AND DESTROY VOL. 2

By Atsushi Kaneko

$14.99 / SC / 224 pgs / BW / 5.2" × 7.2"

The second volume in manga creator Atsushi Kaneko's cyberpunk retelling of the timeless, Eisner Award–winning Dororo by "God of Manga" Osamu Tezuka.

Originally serialized from 2019–2021 in the Japanese manga monthly ZenonCorni, Search and Destroy is a brilliantly-crafted thriller about an outsider looking for meaning and vengeance in the unjust world that took everything away from her. In a stunning, high-contrast setting that blends the post–Cold War former Soviet Bloc with a gritty futuristic Tokyo, Kaneko populates his story with an unforgettable cast of scrappy heroes and skin-crawling machine-monsters on a nonstop ride full of action and suspense. The result is not only one of the best sci-fi manga of recent years but also one of the most visually rich and distinctive works of graphic storytelling in any genre or language.

BABY BLUE

By Bim Eriksson

$29.99 / SC / 264 pgs / One-Color / 7.3" x 9.8"

This haunting dystopian thriller graphic novel explores themes of mental health, queer identity, and the dangers of unchecked fascism.

In the not-so-distant future, twenty-something Betty lives in a fascistic society that menacingly polices mental health. When she is caught crying in public, the Procedkeepers take her to an Orwellian health facility to control her emotions. There, she meets the defiant Bertha, who opens her eyes to an alternative reality: the Resistance. If Betty can navigate a rollicking underworld, where all manner of queerness is celebrated, she just might have a chance to strike back against the regime.

Deliciously twisted, fiercely contemporary, and backed by a Swedish pop soundtrack, Baby Blue is the dynamic graphic novel debut of comics artist Bim Eriksson. A vital manifesto about the need to express your unique identity in a chillingly conformist world.

SEASON OF THE ROSES

By Chloé Wary

$29.99 / HC / 240 pgs / FC / 7" x 9.8"

Dazzling to the eye, Season of the Roses is at once a deeply felt coming-of-age story and an inspirational rallying cry for young women living in a "man's world".

Barbara has big goals. As the fiery captain of her U19 soccer team, the Rosigny Roses, she's determined to win a championship before graduating high school and leaving the grungy Parisian suburbs in the dust. So when her club threatens to divert their funding to the men's team and forfeit their season, she's devastated. Banding together, the Roses come up with a longshot plan — battle the men's team in a winner-takes-all match. Do Barbara and the Roses have what it takes to save their season?

Inspired by the author's experiences, Season of the Roses is an authentic portrayal of a teenager at a crossroads. Her dazzling illustrations, drawn in colorful felt-tip pens, encompass the thrills of playing soccer as well as the angst of navigating life off the field. In Season of the Roses, soccer isn't just a game — it's all about self-discovery, making bold choices, and standing up to sexism and injustice.

EVEN MORE FROM FANTAGRAPHICS

TEDWARD

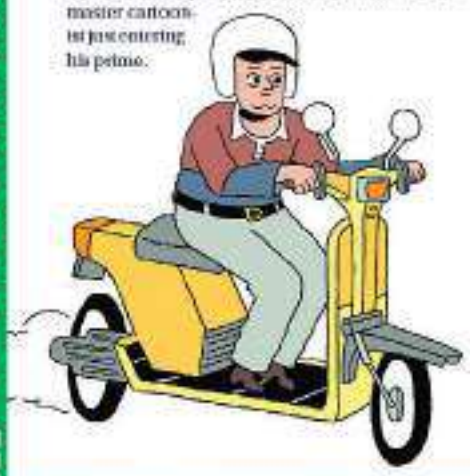
By Josh Pettinger

$24.99 / HC / 160 pgs / FC / 6.6" x 10.3"

Meet Tedward — a blockhead with a heart of gold, and a talent for making bad situations worse.

Tedward is, in many ways, the quintessential "lovable loser" — an almost literal blockhead and mangenue in the grand tradition of Pee-Wee Herman, Candide, and Pokey Puss, affording his creator the perfect vehicle to indulge his brilliantly absurdist storytelling instincts.

Tedward is the debut collection from British-born Philadelphia cartoonist Josh Pettinger. Featuring sea treasures, cranial hygienists, warm televisions, hot sucks, and clown meat, as well as romance, crime, conflict, and cosmic wonders! A spiritual cousin to the humor of Simon Hanselmann and Daniel Clowes, Pettinger's singularity of tone and style in these episodic comedies mark him as a master cartoonist just entering his prime.



NEW FROM FANTAGRAPHICS UNDERGROUND

PAGEANT

By Justin Gradin

$29.99 / SC / 180 pgs / FC / 8.5" x 10"

Ponce Melee is a lonely clock-puncher working for Twin Labs in the cloning dept. When he uses a strand of hair to clone a companion; it's successful, but she immediately leaves him for greener pastures. So, he clones another potential companion. And that one leaves. And again. And again. Soon, multiple clones begin causing confusion and havoc around town. Meanwhile, one of the errant clones makes a pact with the devil that goes awry and unseals Satan in town, forcing him to get a job.

Justin Gradin's sophomore graphic novel (after 2023's Mystic Debris) combines keen verbal and visual wit with a host of memorable characters — Mandrake the Soda Jerk, private investigator Butterfly Lane, pop superstar Attila the Hunny, and many more — to create an anarchic, absurdist comedy about lonely souls and the lonely soulless. Pure comics, Gradin's work has echoes of Gary Panter, Gary Leib, Marc Bell, and Mark Beyer (and even some other cartoonists who may or may not be named Gary or Mark) while remaining a singular, sui generis voice in contemporary comics.

ARTIST AT LAST

By Bill Pearson

$20.00 / SC / 72 pgs / FC / 8" x 10"

A retrospective in illustrations from the psychedelic, transcendental mind of one of comics' most tireless forces, Bill Pearson. Having worked in comics from just about every position and angle over the last 50+ years (including as the editor of the legendary ORTZOG), Pearson's first solo art book collects a decades-spanning body of work, never seen until now. His illustrations dance playfully between monstrous and silly imaginary creatures in the vein of Vaughn Bode, and abstract gems evoking Wassily Kandinsky. If the title rings with humility, it's only because Pearson is selling himself short. A culmination of a life devoted to comics, Fantagraphics is proud to present Artist at Last.

O/A THE COMPLETE WORLD FAMOUS CREATURES HC

Monster Kids rejoice! Coming at you from the earliest days of monster mania, World Famous Creatures magazine was put together quickly and cheaply to cash in on the popularity of Famous Monsters #1. The title lasted just four issues — two in 1958 and two in 1959 — and are much sought after by monster magazine collectors. The issues contain tons of large monster stills, Forry-like puns, and cut-out monster masks. The publisher even tried to copy Warren's Captain Company by offering many mail-order monster items. There is also early John Severin art in the monster mix! Collects issue #1-4. (STL251562)

In the gym locker room, he notices how his body's soft curves contrast with the thin frames and toned muscles of the other boys. And on TV, it seems like someone who looks like Tyler never gets the girl. But is being thin the same thing as being healthy? What's wrong with being fat, anyway? When his dad forces the Page family to start dieting, Tyler discovers the difference between building a body that conforms to society's expectations and one that actually feels good to live in. EC Comics: How the Gaines File Pedigree Came to Be

Part Two

The Gaines File pedigree is one of the best-documented pedigreed collections of comic books ever to come into the marketplace. It has been widely accepted, frequently reported upon, and has possessed strong staying power since the comics were originally sold.

With all of the attention focused on EC recently following EC's return to publishing new comics under the banner of Oni Press with Epitaphs From The Abyss and Cruel Universe, many new readers are hearing about the Gaines File copies for the first time.

So, what is a comic book pedigree collection?

According to the as yet still unpublished book The Guide To Comic Book Pedigrees, "A pedigreed collection must have been accumulated by one individual during the time the comics were released on the newsstand. This is a critical factor because a pedigree's appeal comes from their homogenous quality and singular genesis. The books have aged together in the same environment, creating a uniform 'feel' that does not exist for comics in a collection with diverse origins."

In short, a pedigreed collection must primarily consist of high-quality comic books, must contain a substantial number of key or rare issues, or represent a significant portion of a particular genre, company, period, or classic title or character, and the collecting community must continue to recognize the pedigree name of a collection past the point of initial sale.

It is not uncommon for issues from widely recognized pedigrees to sell for multiples of their otherwise accepted prices in The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide.

AN ENTERTAINING EC COMIC

"It was an oddly cold day in August 1989. The mist settled in among the Manhattan skyscrapers creating a spooky EC setting as Russ Cochran and I walked over to Bill Gaines' apartment from our hotel. It still seems like only yesterday when Russ called me with the news that Bill Gaines has decided to sell his EC collection. Russ would be handling the sale, and I was needed to verify the collection and to arrange the copies of each issue by grade. We both knew that he had put away twelve copies of every EC 35-40 years earlier and sealed them away in boxes. Now the time had come to open those packages," price guide author Robert M. Overstreet said.

As it turned out, Gaines had not uniformly put away twelve of each issue, but that was indeed the case for most of them. They were high-grade copies, incredibly well preserved, and of course came straight from the personal collection of EC publisher William M. Gaines himself.

Cochran, who for years had published EC reprints in a variety of formats, had never seen copies in such superior condition. Neither had Overstreet, a veteran EC collector since 1952. They were going to make a splash.

"It was an unbelievable experience," Overstreet said.

I WITNESSED: THE LIZZIE BORDEN STORY GN

(W) Jeramey Kraatz
(A) Crystal Jayme

Fourteen-year-old Charlie Churchill knows that he must put his childish stories behind him and be the man of the house, where his gossip-loving mother and adventurous young cousin in Fall River, Massachusetts, need him. But on the morning of August 4, 1892, Charlie witnesses a horrific act at his next-door neighbors' house, the Bordens, that he can't keep to himself. No one believes that Charlie saw one of the Bordens be attacked on the second floor of the house, not even when Andrew and Abby Borden are found dead later that morning. Charlie is determined to use what he witnessed to help the police find the murderer, from spying a mysterious figure burying something in the woods in the middle of the night to the whispers he overhears from the Borden sisters and staff. Even if it means having to face the prime suspect, his enigmatic neighbor Lizzie Borden, accused of killing her own father and stepmother. (STL355632) (C: 0-1-0)

In the not-too-distant future, most of humanity resides on its last-ditch effort at utopia: Meridian, a remote alien planet where you're more likely to be born superhuman than left-handed. None of that is important to Oberon Afolayan. Since his mildly public breakdown, his whole life seems to be spiraling out of control—from dropping out of university to breaking up with his boyfriend, it seems like only a karmic inevitability when he wakes up one day with the ability to conjure his dreams in the real world. Oberon's newfound powers come with a facsimile of his high school crush, Kai, who mysteriously dropped off the face of the planet almost three years ago, and who is a little more infuriating (if not also infuriatingly hot) than Oberon remembers. Oberon might have more on his plate than he originally thought, but is giving up his dreams—even the one he might have accidentally fallen in love with—the only way to find happiness in reality? THE ART OF GEORGE WILSON HC

(W) Anthony Taylor (A/CA) George Wilson

What made many of the great adventure comics of the 1960s so attractive were their fantastic painted covers by artist George Wilson. Wilson also turned in hundreds of painted covers for paperback books that range from The Phantom and Flash Gordon to romance, adventure and war titles, all illustrated in the extensive survey of his work. Unlike the majority of comic book covers of the era, Wilson's covers harkened back to the era of pulp magazines and were spectacularly eye-catching. He turned in efforts for literally hundreds of comics titles - this important monograph on the artist provides examples of every genre he worked in. Presented are cover paintings scanned from the original artwork from Classics Illustrated, The Twilight Zone, Ripley's Believe It or Not, Doctor Solar, Magnus Robot Fighter, Turok, Son of Stone, Star Trek, Korak, Son of Tarzan, Mighty Samson, Brothers of the Spear, Boris Karloff Tales of Mystery, Space Family Robinson, Dark Shadows, and The Occult Files of Doctor Spektre to name but a few.

This new art book focuses on over 200 examples of his cover art accompanied by an introduction by famed artist Joe Jusko, an exhaustive essay by Anthony Taylor and the only interview Wilson ever gave. This is the ultimate, definitive art book about one of the most important cover artists of the Silver and Bronze ages. (STL281227) (C: 0-1-2)

(W/A) Dale Messick

Before Fredric Wertham and The Seduction of the Innocent (SOTI), before before the infamous Comics Code, the comic book racks at local drug stores and newsstands boasted a plethora of delights highlighted by the good girl adventures of the comic book version of Brenda Starr. These four-color wonders displayed all the finer things loved by comic book buyers: good girls, bondage, a little torture, and other delectable things. Now, comics fans can read and own these rare comics from another era, digitally restored to perfection and presented in an archival hardcover. (STK667226)

O/A GLADYS PARKER: A LIFE IN COMICS, A PASSION FOR FASHION HC

(W) Trina Robbins (A) Gladys Parker

Cartoonist Gladys Parker was unique in comics. Parker mixed fashion and comics and created classic characters that mimicked her sense of fashion. In fact, Parker was an exact double for her ink-and-paper creation, Mopsy. Only Gladys Parker was a fashion designer with a successful line of clothing while at the same time drawing an equally successful comic strip. Parker's dresses bearing the Gladys Parker label were sold at her own New York shop and at high-end department stores across the country. Who better to chronicle the story of Gladys Parker than comics herstorian Trina Robbins, who in the 1960s designed clothes for hippies and rock stars out of her East Village boutique, while drawing underground comix? The twins don't act like themselves, and they now have flawless skin, have lost their distinctive tics and habits, and keep talking about a girl named Belle. Amber insists her children have been replaced by something horrible, something "perfect." Traveling to a small village in the British countryside, Jessica meets the mysterious Belle, who lives a curiously isolated life in an old farmhouse with a strange woman who claims to be her guardian. Seventeen-year-old Helena "Nell" Cusack came to New York this summer looking for a story, a real story. She dreams of one day writing hard-hitting articles for the New York Chronicle, but so far she's only managed to land a job as a lowly society reporter. That is, until Alice Austen strolls into her life, an audacious street photographer who encourages Nell to shake up polite society... and maybe also take a chance on love. When her best friend, Lucia, is injured while working in a garment factory, Nell is determined to crack the story wide open. Posing as a seamstress, she reports on the conditions from the inside, making a name for herself as the Chronicle's first ever stunt girl. But as Nell's reporting gains momentum, so do the objections of those who oppose her. Will Nell continue to seek justice–even if it hurts her in the end? Based on real-life stunt girl Nell Nelson and photographer Alice Austen, this tenderly drawn narrative is about bringing buried stories to light and the bravery of first love. (STL355201) (C: 0-1-1)

LOVE ME PLEASE: THE STORY OF JANIS JOPLIN HC

(W) Nicolas Finet (A) Christopher
How did a very young messed up woman, a drug addict filled with doubt, become in a few years a planetary icon of rock music? Janis Joplin went from the shadows to the blinding light of fame in only four records (the last one issued a month and a half after her tragic death). Thanks to a worldwide movement of emancipation which would consecrate for a long time the ideals and modes of alternative lifestyles from counterculture to the flower power generation, Janis, the ugly duckling, gave free rein to her impulses. Joplin left for San Francisco, the epicenter of cultural innovation, where she lived a freedom of which she would hardly have dared to dream, abandoning herself to all impulses, overcoming without hesitation all the taboos of the time: bisexuality, alcohol, drugs, doing so not only with delight, but with the taste for excess which came naturally from her spontaneous character. From Eisner Award–nominated writer/artist Patrick Horvath (Beneath the Trees Where Nobody Sees) comes a 56-page, self-contained one-shot that delivers a brutal new vision of capitalism by combat . . .

In the future, the World Finance League exists to benefit all, randomly choosing those from among the billionaires and trillionaires of the world and presenting them with a choice: either donate half of their assets to the common good—or defend them in ritual combat.

Reigning champion and real estate magnate Ted Brooks has 22 victories under his belt—defending the wealth he schemed and stabbed to get—when he is forced to face his ex-wife, Luella Dominguez, in a fight to the death. Luella has been training, waiting for this moment. But will she have what it takes to defeat the man who would do anything—absolutely anything—to keep his fortune?

It's every shareholder for themselves when death and bankruptcy collide in Free for All #1, a giant-sized, one-shot spectacle of commerce and carnage coming this March from Eisner Award–nominated cartoonist Patrick Horvath!

LIMITED SERIES		IN STORES MARCH 19

Born from one of the greatest unsolved mysteries of the 20th century, this taut and breathtaking original limited series launches with a double-sized, 48-page debut from Eisner Award–nominated writer Christopher Cantwell (Plastic Man No More, Briar) and Eisner Award–nominated illustrator Tyler Crook (Harrow County, The Lonesome Hunters)!

Convicts Frank Morris and Clarence Anglin have washed ashore in San Francisco after surviving their infamous escape from Alcatraz Federal Penitentiary in June 1962. They soon meet their gruff and disappointed handler, a mysterious young woman who's also running from something, and hope to quickly get their way north to the border—if they can even make it out of Modesto alive. As a dogged federal manhunt and chance encounters threaten the desperate convicts, everyone involved is about to discover the same bloodstained truth: life on the run is an even more hellish prison than Alcatraz could have ever been.

There was a time when everyone had access to magic, until a dispute for power attracted a demon from another world who destroyed everything . . . or so legend has it. But who was that hero, and what became of him? Why is the queen now the only person capable of using magic? Attracted by all these enigmas of the past, Ania, princess of the Kingdom and heir to the throne by imposition, will try to find out the truth behind these magical fables—now that she has just found a mysterious sword.

TONGUES VOLUME 1 HC
(W) Anders Nilsen
Set in a version of modern Central Asia, Tongues is a retelling of the Greek myth of Prometheus. It follows the captive god's friendship with the eagle who carries out his daily sentence of torture and chronicles his pursuit of revenge on the god that has imprisoned him. Prometheus's story is entwined with that of an East African orphan on an errand of murder, and a young man with a teddy bear strapped to his back, wandering aimlessly into catastrophe (a character readers may recognize from Nilsen's Dogs and Water). The story is set against the backdrop of tensions between rival groups in an oil-rich wilderness. Tongues is both an adventure story and a meditation on human nature in our present fraught, historical moment. GOLDEN AGE CLASSICS: AMAZING MAN VOLUME 2 HC

(A) Bill Everett & Various

PS Artbooks presents the concluding volume of Amazing Man, the second super-hero after Superman, to have a comic book named after him). Historians credit his creation variously to writer-artist Bill Everett and art director Lloyd Jacquet, although some credit may be due to Grace Everett, who helped with research. In 1914, an orphaned child named John Aman was chosen by the Tibetan Council of Seven and trained to be a superman, both in mental and physical perfection. His powers include super strength, invulnerability and the ability to make himself disappear in a cloud of green vapor. When he turned twenty-five, after his final tests, he is sent into the world to combat crime and injustice, returning to America to become the heroic Amazing Man and his continuing battles with arch-enemy "The Great Question"! Collects Amazing Man #20-26 (February 1941-January 1942) and Stars and Stripes #2-6 (May-December 1941). (STL356028) (C: 0-1-2)

GOLDEN AGE CLASSICS: FIGHT COMICS FEATURING TIGER GIRL SOFTEE VOLUME 2 SC

The Tiger Girl, created by Robert Webb, was also known as Princess Vishnu. She was brought from India to Africa by her father Rajah Vishnu, after the death of her Irish mother. She was an excellent leader and pretty good in a fight, especially when she used her whip and her tiger ring, which gave her added strength when she looked at it and was accompanied by her companions: Benzali, a tiger, and Abdola, an Indian man. She protected her lost civilization from outsiders and others who meant harm. She ultimately became one of Fiction House's longest-lived characters; her stories continued to be published for over a decade until the company ceased operations in 1954. O/A AMERICAN COMIC BOOK CHRONICLES: 1945-1949 HC

(W/A) Various

The American Comic Book Chronicles 1945-49 volume covers the comic book industry during the aftermath of World War II, when scores of writers and artists returned from foreign battlefields to resume their careers. It was a period when readers began turning away from the escapist entertainment offered by super-heroes in favor of other genres, like the grittier, more brutal crime comics. It was a time when Joe Simon and Jack Kirby created Young Romance, inaugurating a golden age of romance comics. And it was during this five-year period that Timely and National Comics capitalized on the popularity of Westerns, that Bill Gaines plotted a new course for EC Comics in the wake of his father's death, and that Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster first sued for the rights to Superman. SOON, IT DELIVERS. BUT WHEN DARKSIDE'S EQUIPMENT IS STOLEN AT A MASSIVE MUSIC VENUE, JUST BEFORE THEY'RE SET TO TAKE THE STAGE WITH DEF LEPPARD, FOZ GOES ON THE WARPATH TO GET IT BACK. A KNUCKLE-DUSTING RAMPAGE ENSUES, AND THE GUITAR'S TRUE HISTORY IS REVEALED.

WICKED: THE GRAPHIC NOVEL PART 1 SC
(W) Gregory Maguire
(A/CA) Scott Hampton
Experience the magic of Oz as you've never seen it before with this graphic novel adaptation of Gregory Maguire's masterpiece Wicked, the first in a two-part series featuring gorgeous full-color illustrations by Scott Hampton. Like Dorothy when she crash-landed all those years ago, prepare to be swept into a new and colorful world. Elphaba was born with emerald-green skin—no easy burden in a land as mean and poor as Oz, where superstition and magic are not strong enough to explain or overcome the natural disasters of flood and famine. Still, Elphaba is smart, and by the time she enters Shiz University, she becomes a member of a charmed circle of Oz's most promising young citizens. But Elphaba's Oz is no utopia. The Wizard's secret police are everywhere. Animals—those creatures with voices, souls, and minds—are threatened with exile. Young Elphaba, green and wild and misunderstood, is determined to protect the Animals—even if it means combating the mysterious Wizard, even if it means risking her single chance at romance. Ever wiser in guilt and sorrow, she can find herself grateful when the world declares her a witch. And she can even make herself glad for that young girl from Kansas. (STL355602) (C: 0-1-1)

WORLD WITHOUT END: AN ILLUSTRATED GUIDE TO THE CLIMATE CRISIS HC
(W) Jean-Marc Jancovici, Christophe Blain (A) Christophe Blain
In this intelligent, eye-opening, and witty international bestseller, an eminent climate expert takes a graphic novelist on a journey to understand the profound changes that our planet is experiencing. The scientist, Jean-Marc Jancovici, explains the workings of superpowers and history; oil and climate; ecology, economics, and energy flows. He describes, in short, the world we live in today—a world whose future is deeply uncertain. The artist, Christophe Blain, intently listens and draws. As the pair come face to face with global warming, they—along with Mother Nature and a cast of others—create a picture of what the solution to our predicament actually looks like. It's not just about switching to renewable energy sources. It's about rethinking everything: our energy supply, our economies, and our whole world. (STL312396) (C: 0-1-0)

(W) Fei Tian Ye Xiang

Multimillionaire movie director Zhang Yuwen has it all—fame, fortune, and a successful career. But what he really craves is to create a novel he can call true art. Passionate about this dream, he abandons the film industry to pursue writing full-time, only to hit an unexpected roadblock: his characters feel flat, lacking the authenticity he longs for. The problem? Zhang Yuwen has spent most of his life alone and hasn't had much real-world interaction to draw from. As a single gay man with a luxurious villa full of empty rooms, Zhang Yuwen comes up with an unconventional solution. Why not rent those rooms out to other gay men and use them as inspiration for his novel's characters? Enter his four new roommates: Yan Jun, a single father; Chen Hong, a fitness coach; Zheng Weize, a shy young livestreamer; and Chang Jinxing, a playboy and aspiring photographer. Each brings their own unique story and quirks, giving Zhang Yuwen the perfect opportunity to study real people up close. Yoshihide is not happy about this, especially when he learns that Yuzuki has been the victim of a rape attempt. But Yuzuki refuses to name the perpetrator. Yoshihide becomes furious. Having been commissioned by Horikawa to paint a folding hell screen depicting punishments in the afterlife, he tortures his apprentices so that he can depict human suffering more accurately. DCC RPG ANNUAL HC

(W) Goodman Games Staff (A) Doug Kovacs

The DCC RPG Annual was originally conceived as an annual publication that would exist in some form to showcase the brilliance of the DCC RPG community. This would be the DCC RPG Annual, published each year to distribute these gaming creations. The best of things happened: the DCC RPG Annual was never needed. The DCC community burst forth a verdant jungle of inspiration, with ripe fruit on every limb. Blogs and personal posts; zines; community publications; the Gongfarmer's Almanac; officially licensed third-party works: there is a vast supply of inspiration from whence the DCC judge can draw and iterate. Still, we had a wealth of material that needed a home, so The DCC RPG Annual became a reality! (STL345026) (C: 0-1-2)
